Dog Care Services

UPDATED  MAR 2011

About this Issue

Periodically some of you have asked me about a recommendation for various dog services.

I don't actually use any pet-related services except for our veterinarian and pet food supplier, so I asked everyone on the newsletter distribution list for help.

In the true spirit of caring and sharing, many dog owners were more than willing to offer their recommendations with others.

Thanks to all for sharing your finds. And thanks from our furry friends.

~ Candice
